AMERICAN INDIAN COLLEGE FUND – PRE-DISSERTATION FACULTY GRANT APPLICATION

The Program

Recognizing the need to assist tribal college and university (TCU) faculty in the process of terminal degree attainment, the American Indian College Fund with support and funding from Kim Blanchard, A*CF Board Member, established the American Indian College Fund Pre-Dissertation Faculty Grant. The program offers small grants of $3,000-5,000 to current tribal college and university (TCU) faculty members currently enrolled in a terminal degree programs to support activities that contribute to degree attainment.

Guidelines

Eligible applicants must be a current faculty member at an accredited tribal college that is a full member of the American Indian Higher Education Consortium (AIHEC). Applicants must be actively enrolled in a terminal degree program. Grant funding must be used to cover expenses associated with degree attainment including, but not limited to: research design, data collection and tabulation, purchasing software, periodicals or books, or conducting necessary travel for completion of research. The grant is for a one-year term and recipients are required to provide a detailed budget of how funds will be utilized. A final report must be submitted to the American Indian College Fund along with receipts documenting expenses by the end of the one-year term of the grant.

Eligibility Requirements

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Current faculty member at a TCU that is accredited for higher education and a full member of the American Indian Higher Education Consortium
- Enrolled in an accredited M.F.A., Ph.D. or Ed.D. program
- Demonstrated commitment to American Indian education and scholarship
- Commitment to continue serving on faculty at a TCU for at least one year after receiving grant

Application Submission

A complete application consists of the following:

- Application
- Curriculum Vitae
- Personal statement
- Itemized budget and timeline for completing proposed project within the established year-long time frame
- Official copy of graduate school transcripts
- Two letters of recommendation. One letter must be from a faculty member of applicant's graduate program. Please make additional copies of the "Recommendation Request" sheet as necessary

Selection Policies

Applications will be evaluated by senior scholars based on the following criteria:

- Quality of application
- Clarity and impact of proposed use of funds
- Scholarly performance and progress toward a terminal degree

Completed applications (including transcripts and references) are due by 5:00 P.M. MST on March 30, 2012 at the American Indian College Fund.

AMERICAN INDIAN COLLEGE FUND –
PRE-DISSERTATION FACULTY GRANT APPLICATION

Reference Letter Format:

The Program

Recognizing the need to assist tribal college and university (TCU) faculty in the process of terminal degree attainment, the American Indian College Fund has partnered with its supporters to establish the American Indian College Fund Pre-dissertation Faculty Grant. The program offers financial support to tribal college and university (TCU) faculty enrolled in a terminal degree program that are committed to serving American Indian communities by teaching at a tribal college or university.

To the Recommender:

We solicit your candid evaluation of the applicant's range of abilities and accomplishments, creative and intellectual promise and projected ability to be conferred a doctorate or other terminal degree. Specifically, we are asking for letters that address the following areas:

1. The quality of the applicant's academic or creative achievements, including material not apparent on the official transcript.
2. The applicant's scholarly or creative potential and promise in relation to other pre-doctoral candidates.
3. The importance of applicant's proposed dissertation topic in relation to other scholarship produced in the field of study.
4. Discuss the applicant's commitment to their tribal college community.

Deadline for letter of recommendation: March 30, 2012
